Letter No. 1985 of 23rd October 1903 from the Revenue Commissioner re the holding of a weekly fair at Kurnvalli in the Sirihalli Taluk.

The Rev. Comr. recommends that the proposal of the Dy. Comr. for the holding of a weekly fair every Saturday at Kurnvalli may be sanctioned provisionally for 3 yrs.

The facts are:-

Kurnvalli forms part of Sirihalli Nemmee-halli and is separated by the Tunga River. The Residents of the place presented a petition to the Dy. Comr. representing the difficulties experienced by them & the inhabitants of nearly 50 villages of the Sunkur Hobli, in having to cross the Tunga River & go to Sirihalli to obtain each & every article necessary for their domestic & agricultural purposes & praying for the holding of a weekly fair there (Kurnvalli)

The Dy. Comr. states that in the rainy season people have to cross the River by ferries & are thereby put to much expense & difficulties & that both the Asst. & the Dy. Comr. in charge of the Taluk support the petition.
